

Transportation from Logan Airport to Salem State University

1. Weekend: Subway/Commuter Rail from Logan Airport—Approximately $22
 - a) Take complimentary Logan Shuttle bus service from Terminal E to Airport "T" subway Station
 - b) Take the Blue Line ($2.50 cash) to Government Center Station.
 - c) Transfer to the Green Line ($2.50 cash) from Government Center Station to Lechmere, North Station.
 - d) From North Station, take the Newburyport/Rockport train towards Rockport ($10, 25-30 minutes).
 - e) Arrive at Salem.
 - f) Take a taxi from Salem to Salem State University ($8-$10)

2. Weekday: Best route to Salem State University
 - a) From Terminal C at Logan airport- Departures level, take Bus 459 towards Salem Depot. (Bus approx. every hour: $2.00 cash, time 46 mins)
 - b) Stop at Loring avenue at Raymond Road
 - c) From the stop walk to Salem State University (About 2 mins, 0.1 miles)

3. Logan Express Bus – Approximately $30.00
 - a) Take Logan Express bus service to Peabody (Weekday bus arrives every hour. Weekends every hour until noon and every two hours after, $11, approx. 30-40 minutes)
 - b) From Peabody, take taxi. About $14-20 for 1-2 people.

4. Amtrak Weekday
 - a) If you are arriving by Amtrak from New York or other points south, you will arrive at South Station in Boston.
 - b) From South Central Station, take Bus 459 towards Salem Depot. ($2.00 cash, approx, 1 hour 2 mins)
 - c) Stop at Loring Avenue at Raymond Road
 - d) From the stop walk to Salem State University (About 2 minutes, 0.1 miles)

5. Amtrak Weekend
 - a) Take a taxi from South Central Station to State St. Station ($Approx. $6, 5 mins)
 - b) From State St. Station take the Blue line to Wonderland Station (19 mins, $2.50)
 - c) From Wonderland station take bus 455 to Salem depot (45 mins, $2.00 cash)
 - d) Stop at Loring avenue at Raymond road
 - e) From the stop walk to Salem State University (about 2 mins, 0.2 miles)